- a. Although a team from the 166 Signal Photo Co was attached to the Division from August 1, 1944 onward, 1st Lt. Shadden was attached to the 90th Division on the day he was killed. The 6th Armored Division was still assembling several kilometers north of the fighting on July 22, and had not yet entered combat.

NOTES: A Plot/Row/Grave” entry of “0 0 0” indicates that the name appears on the Walls of the Missing.

Unmarked units were organic to the 6th Armored Division.

* These units were permanently attached to the 6th Armored Division and stayed with it throughout their time in the ETO.

** These units were temporarily attached to the 6th Armored Division at different times during their time in the ETO.

*** There is no record of these units ever having been attached to the 6th Armored Division, although they appear in the ABMC database as connected to the Division. The listings for the Sicily-Rome Cemetery are obviously in error since the 6th Armored Division did not enter combat until July 1944 in France.
